Looking for an alternative for buying your MARC tickets?
CommuterDirect.com offers an easy, online solution.

3 Easy Steps to Buying your MARC Ticket

STEP 1: Go to CommuterDirect.com and Choose Your Ticket Order Option

One-time order—choose your ticket type, start date, origin, and destination for the one time you need a MARC ticket.

Renewable order—choose your ticket type, start date, origin, destination, and payment voucher promise if applicable. (Payment vouchers include Commuter Choice MD, Metrochek, and Ridechek MD.) Your ticket is automatically delivered to you on a regular basis—you don't have to do anything else.

SmartBenefits—choose this option if you receive SmartBenefits from your employer. Follow the online instructions to open your CommuterDirect.com account.

STEP 2: Create Your Secure Account

Once you create your account with a username and password, your newly created log in information will be stored for future transactions. You will then be asked for a payment method (i.e. checking account or credit card). CommuterDirect.com accepts all major credit cards. Then choose where you want your ticket delivered—home or office.

STEP 3: Submit Your Order

If you are placing a one-time order, select your shipping option
